

Unless you registered via OASIS, a seat is not guaranteed in any session. However, a student has never been turned away due to lack of seating or tests. Therefore, you are encouraged to attend an available session as a walk-in tester.

Below are the sessions that are open to walk-ins. If you need both the Essay and the Reading exams, you must attend a Combined session. If you are enrolled in RGTE or RGTR, you must have either your current class schedule or Regent's ticket embossed with seal from the professor.

Be sure to bring these items with you or admittance may be denied:

- picture identification (valid driver's license, student ID or passport)
 - check cashing cards, picture credit cards, Sam cards are not acceptable forms of identification
- #2 pencils
- Black ink pen (Essay and Combined sessions only)
- Regent's ticket OR
- Current class schedule
